In presenting to your notice this our latest idea in a poker table, we wish to call your attention.

briefly to some of its many strong points. 1st. It is massively built. 2nd. Is readily convertible from a serviceable arm chair to a modern card table. 3rd. It embodies all the good features of any table containing a holdout. 4th. There is at no time either while used as a chair or while in operation as a card table anything unnatural or suspicious in its appearance or construction. In fact it defies detection, but when it is in operation works to perfection and cannot fail to do its work perfectly. Will stand any kind of inspection. In fact its appearance in action or at rest is so natural that it forestalls all suspicion.

This table must be seen to be appreciated.
